In 1925 our grandfather, Frank Pepe, opened the original Frank Pepe Pizzeria Napoletana in New Haven, CT.

Grandpa knew that only a coal fire would give his "tomato pies" their famous crisp, charred crust. When we began to open other Frank Pepe Pizzerias over 80 years later, we knew we had to recreate his original oven, brick by brick, with a fire door cast from a mold of the original.

As the new stores opened, we made sure to use all the knowledge our grandpa passed down to us. He taught us overloading the oven when it got busy (and it did get busy) would reduce the temperature to a point which would yield an inferior pie. We pay tribute to his memory by making sure every pizza meets his high standards.

Even in today's fast paced world, we knew our customers would be willing to wait a few minutes longer for a perfect Frank Pepe Pizza.

Our family thanks you for your loyal patronage over these many, many years.
